From the conneciion and in-I Tis the guardian spirit of masonry! These, my friends, rercourse between the Hebrews and the inhabitants of are not pictures drawn by fancy, but by the sober penTyre and Egypt, and the attachment of the latter to cil of truth. I can point to living instances in proof ol heiroglophic symbols, we can readily account for the I my assertions--instances too, independent of those acintroduclion of those principles into the last named counts of benevolence contained in the records ol countries. The sun of masonry which arose in the the Lodges; accounts which we trust, will be found east, soon enlightened the west; and soon the nonh j duly posted lo their credit in the grand ledger of demand south were favoured with the benignant influence ity of its beams. We are informed, that several hundred years before the christian era in Asia, associations of Freeemasons under the name of Dionysian artificers, made great improvements in architecture, and were distinguished for their science. And in the fourteenth century in Europe, an itinerant association of operative Freemasons, consisting of men of different countries, erected many public buildings which have excited the admiration of the world. Their lodge s have been emphaticalyj termed seminaries ol instruction in the sciences and polite arts. Among the numerous durable structures and magnificent edifices, erected under the auspices of masonry, I shall only point you to the stupendous pyramids ol Egypt, the lofty temples...
