ME Wood Publishng, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Standing in Leeds train station on a summer Sunday morning, feeling a little worse for wear having travelled down from the higher parts of Scotland for a wedding the day before necessitating a 3.a.m start and a 2a.m finish with one too many champagnes thrown into the mix, a voice popped into my head that said, it s time to write Unconditional Slug Well you can imagine my resistance and protests to this request, feeling tired and a little queasy from the travel and celebrations and I answered, Can t this wait? You had long enough, it s now or never and though right at this time never sounded fairly tempting. You see I already had this idea some months prior and had not found the time to act on it and I am realising in that moment that divine slug was speaking to me was reminding me a few things, like there s no time like the present, it s now or never and life will always through up a million reasons not to do things! I conceded and as soon as I sat down on the train, I whipped out my tablet and began to channel Unconditional Slug. The sparking point for the book initially came when I and my children were placed in temporary homeless accommodation upon splitting up with my former husband. Don t get me wrong, I was and am still extremely grateful to our local authority for the support at that difficult time and the flat was a reasonable place to live in many senses, but it did have a couple of less desirable attributes namely the damp pong that...
